THE ROSARY

Since we are at the crossroads in this beloved country of ours, we now need to rely and call upon our good LORD and His Blessed Mother for help. It is when the Israelites, after sinning, came back to their senses, they called upon the LORD and He heard them. So, our Blessed Mother, heeding the calls of her children, will find a way to help us - but it would need some more prayers, especially the holy Rosary. If you can say one Rosary a day, that would be great. It would be better if we can say this Rosary as a family or in a group. It would still be better if we could make it even 2 or 3, which is the whole Psalter, which is all three mysteries and 150 Ave's. Thank you!

KEYS...

You know that I won't be talking about the Florida Keys - but about keys that open doors. You don't give children keys, for they are prone to lose them. Keys are entrusted to someone who is trustworthy and reliable, someone who has the same sentiments as you do.

Christ gave the keys to St. Peter, who, as we know did not prove to be so trustworthy. But once the Holy Spirit took possession of him, he did prove to GOD and to us, that he was trustworthy. Having failed and denied Christ, after some repentance, and with the help of GOD, he did his utmost not to deny Christ again - even as it cost his life.

Keys. GOD wants so much that each of us recognize the power that is within us, through Baptism. You cannot call GOD "Abba," without having GOD's Spirit within you. As Adam and Eve's children, we were destined for hell. But in GOD's great mercy, He sent His Son, so that His Blood might cleanse us from our sins and opens heaven to us. We do have the keys of the Kingdom - it is our will. If we think and talk and act like Christ, heaven is unlocked for us. But if we hold things contrary to the teachings of GOD, they key does not match the "door," Christ Jesus, and He won't let us in.

We might not like what GOD tells us, but as faith filled Christians, we do as He bids us, and not as we "feel." As St. Paul writes in Heb 11:1 "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen."

For we know: it is for our own good!

THE BOOK OF PROVERBS (5:1-10)

My son, to my wisdom be attentive,
 to understanding incline your ear,
 That you may act discreetly,
 and your lips guard what you know.
 Indeed, the lips of the stranger drip honey,
 and her mouth is smoother than oil;
 But in the end she is as bitter as wormwood,
 as sharp as a two-edged sword.
 Her feet go down to death,
 her steps reach Sheol;
 Her paths ramble, you know not where,
 lest you see before you the road to life.
 So now, children, listen to me,
 do not stray from the words of my mouth.
 Keep your way far from her,
 do not go near the door of her house,
 Lest you give your honor to others,
 and your years to a merciless one;
 Lest outsiders take their fill of your wealth,
 and your hard-won earnings go to another's house;

THE ROSARY

The Rosary a prayer par excellence, has been written about by many Popes. The Catholic Encyclopedia says that the Rosary is defined as: In the Breviary (prayer book that the all clergy and religious must pray daily) we read that: "The Rosary is a certain form of prayer wherein we say fifteen decades, tens of Hail Maris with an Our Father between each ten, while at each of these fifteen decades we recall successively in pious meditation one of the mysteries of our Redemption."

The Rosary is a most effective way of opening heaven for us. As the Israelites of old recited prayers, especially the Psalter (Psalms of King David), so the people today recite the Rosary, while thinking about the various scenes from the life of Christ. Christ Himself prayed and that quite often. Mt 26:44, Lk 6:12, Lk 22:43-44, Acts 1:14,...

Our Catholic Church teaches on the Holy Rosary:

"And so Dominic looked to that simple way of praying and beseeching God, accessible to all and wholly pious, which is called the Rosary, or Psalter of the Blessed Virgin Mary, in which the same most Blessed Virgin is venerated by the angelic greeting repeated one hundred and fifty times, that is, according to the number of the Davidic Psalter, and by the Lord's Prayer with each decade. Interposed with these prayers are certain meditations showing forth the entire life of Our Lord Jesus Christ, thus completing the method of prayer devised by the by the Fathers of the Holy Roman Church." Encyclical by Pope Pius V, Consueverunt Romani, 1569

"Now that the anniversary, therefore, of manifold and exceedingly great favors obtained by a Christian people through the devotion of the Rosary is at hand, We desire that that same devotion should be offered by the whole Catholic world with the greatest earnestness to the Blessed Virgin, that by her intercession her Divine Son may be appeased and softened in the evils which afflict us." Encyclical, "On Devotion of the Rosary" by Pope Leo XIII, 1883

"Our merciful God, as you know, raised up against these most direful enemies a most holy man, the illustrious parent and founder of the Dominican Order. Great in the integrity of his doctrine, in his example of virtue, and by his apostolic labors, he proceeded undauntedly to attack the enemies of the Catholic Church, not by force of arms, but trusting wholly to that devotion which he was the first to institute under the name of the Holy Rosary, which was disseminated through the length and breadth of the earth by him and his pupils. Guided, in fact, by divine inspiration and grace, he foresaw that this devotion, like a most powerful warlike weapon, would be the means of putting the enemy to flight, and of confounding their audacity and mad impiety" Encyclical, "On Devotion of the Rosary" by Pope Leo XIII, 1883

The formula of the Rosary, too, is excellently adapted to prayer in common, so that it has been styled, not without reason, "The Psalter of Mary." And that old custom of our forefathers ought to be preserved or else restored, according to which Christian families, whether in town or country, were religiously wont at close of day, when their labours were at an end, to assemble before a figure of Our Lady and alternately recite the Rosary.

She, delighted at this faithful and unanimous homage, was ever near them like a loving mother surrounded by her children, distributing to them the blessings of domestic peace, the foretaste of the peace of heaven. Considering the efficacy of public prayer, We, among other decrees which we have from time to time issued concerning the Rosary, have spoken thus: "It is Our desire that in the principal church of each diocese it should be recited every day, and in parish churches on every feast-day (Apostolic Letter Salutaris Ille, 24th December, 1883).

POPE LEO XIII ON THE ROSARY 1896
 "Wherefore the Roman Pontiffs have let pass no occasion of commending the Rosary and have enriched it with Apostolic Indulgences." Encyclical "On Saint Dominic" by Pope Benedict XV, 1921

"Let us turn, too, to the most powerful intercession of the Divine Mother -- to obtain which We, addressing to you this Letter of Ours on the day appointed especially for commemorating the Holy Rosary, ordain and confirm all Our Predecessor's prescriptions with regard to the dedication of the present month to the august Virgin, by the public recitation of the Rosary in all churches" Encyclical of Pope St. Pius X, On the Restoration of All Things in Christ", 1903.

Nevertheless, if men in our century, with its derisive pride, refuse the Holy Rosary, there is an innumerable multitude of holy men of every age and every condition who have always held it dear. They have recited it with great devotion, and in every moment they have used it as a powerful weapon to put the demons to flight, to preserve the integrity of life, to acquire virtue more easily, and in a word to attain real peace among men. Nor are there lacking men famous as to doctrine and wisdom who, although intensely occupied in scientific study and researches, never even for a day fail to pray fervently on bended knee, before the image of the Virgin, in this most pious form. Thus kings and princes, however burdened with most urgent occupations and affairs, made it their duty to recite the Rosary." Encyclical, "On the Rosary" by Pope Pius XI, 1937

"Devotion to the Blessed Mother: Inasmuch as priests can be called by a very special title, sons of the Virgin Mary, they will never cease to love her with an ardent piety, invoke her with perfect confidence, and frequently implore her strong protection. So that every day, as the Church herself recommends, they will recite the holy rosary, which, by proposing for our meditation the mysteries of the Redeemer, leads us "to Jesus through Mary." APOSTOLIC EXHORTATION OF POPE PIUS XII TO THE CLERGY OF THE ENTIRE WORLD 1950

"To undertake such a difficult duty, We affirm that the custom of the family recitation of the Holy Rosary is a most efficacious means. What a sweet sight -- most pleasing to God -- when, at eventide, the Christian home resounds with the frequent repetition of praises in honor of the august Queen of Heaven! Then the Rosary, recited in common, assembles before the image of the Virgin, in an admirable union of hearts, the parents and their children, who come back from their daily work. It unites them piously with those absent and those dead. It links all more tightly in a sweet bond of love, with the most Holy Virgin, who, like a loving mother, in the circle of her children, will be there bestowing upon them an abundance of the gifts of concord and family peace" Encyclical on "Reciting the Rosary" by Pope Pius XII, 1951
